

College Fair Results

- XAVIER UNIVERSITY PROS
- Big on health sciences
- Good masters program
- Enough money to send two reps to the fair
- Forensics minor and chemistry/biology major
- XAVIER UNIVERSITY CONS
- Fairly selective
- Bigger school
- Higher end of tuition

(fig.1)

- UNION COLLEGE PROS
- Small, 800 students
- Far enough away but not too far
- Pretty surroundings
- Cheaper
- Very, very personal teachers
- UNION COLLEGE CONS
- Very, very personal teachers
- May not be known by employers
- Not many majors

(fig.2)

- UNIVERSITY OF SOUTHERN INDIANA PROS
- Good distance away
- Big scholarships
- Not too expensive
- Not too hard to get into
- Good majors
- Medium sized
- UNIVERSITY OF SOUTHERN INDIANA CONS
- Need to keep grades up to keep scholarships
- Dumb looking mascot

(fig.3)

- LE ROCHES PROS
- Dream College in terms of travel
- Nearly fully international campuses
- Easily capable of study abroad all throughout Europe
- Not too expensive
- American campus in Chicago
- LES ROCHES CONS
- Can't pronounce name
- Only for business management and fashion design :'(

(fig.4)

I am most interested in Xavier University or University of Southern Indiana. Both colleges offer a lot of majors to me since I am currently undecided in what career field I want to pursue. Both offer good education and are reasonably priced with scholarships calculated in. The view isn't as good as other colleges (see fig.4) but it will do.