Wright State University

Wright State was founded on October 1st, 1967. It's named Wright State after the Wright Brothers, Wilbur and Orville Wright. Wright state is a pretty diverse campus, which is cool I guess, considering how small it is compared to other schools. The campus' undergrad enrollment is 12,722 and the campus is 577 acres. If you want to attend Wright State, their recommended, not required GPA is 2.5 and ACT score of 15. In-state tuition is $8,730, Out-of-state tuition is $16,910.
